MARY IN THE LOBBY TO SPEAK WITH AN OFFICER ABOUT A CUSTODY PROBLEM

P27 Addition- I, Officer Damron, spoke with Mary Kramer in the Peru Police Department lobby reference her son's child custody situation. Mary stated her son, Kevin Kramer, had a child with Julia Eickmeier and the two are currently going through custody hearings in Bureau County. Mary provided me with a Bureau County court document showing the court "finds" that Kevin is the natural father and he is currently the custodian of the child. However, in the section which "orders and amends;" the paragraph which addresses sole custody and visitation was crossed out by the judge. Mary stated there is another court date in September and the court will hopefully address visitation issues.

Mary advised Kevin's attorney advised him to keep the child and not allow Julia any custody without Kevin's presence. Mary stated Kevin allowed Julia to take the child on her own out of kindness. Since August 15, 2013, Kevin and Julia exchanged the child civilly until this Thursday (08/29/13) when Julia refused to give the child back to Kevin. Mary asked if there was anything Kevin could do legally to get the child back. I advised Mary the police could not force Julia to give Kevin the child back based only on the findings of a court case which has not been closed and visitation not determined. I advised Mary I would document the information. Mary stated she understood and stated Kevin would come to the station after work and discuss the matter further. DHD
